Richardson Hall Art Contest

Call for submissions!

Theme: The Other Side

Here's your chance to leave your mark on the temporary walls in Richardson Hall

Richardson Hall 1st, 2nd & 3rd floor Knuckle

Contest open to any current College of Forestry student (undergraduate and graduate)

Questions? Contact Assistant Professor Sara Robinson, 541-737-4233

Art Contest Submissions Accepted Jan. 15 - Feb. 14

Winners will be announced at The Other Side Art Show on Feb. 17.

Contest Rules

Projects must be no larger than 4' x 4'. Submissions should be done directly to medium (canvass, wood board, fabric, etc.), signed by the artist, and followed by a print signature in order to be considered 'done.' Submit to Callie Newton/Sandie Arbogast, RH 238, so art can be placed on Richardson Hall walls.

Any medium is accepted, but must not protrude from the wall more than two inches. One winner will be chosen and receive a $250.00 prize. Four honorable mentions will also be awarded, including one people's choice award. Offensive material without context or social relevance will not be accepted.

The winner, honorable mention awardees and the recipient of the people's choice award will have the opportunity to install their submission as a larger mural on the Richardson temporary walls.

This contest is juried by faculty from CoF, DHE, and ART. The people's choice award will be chosen through a vote of CoF students, faculty, and staff.

The winner and four honorable mention honorees will be recognized at The Other Side Art Show on Feb. 17. Honorable mentions will be awarded for: theme, depth, skill, and people's choice.

All submissions will remain on the walls through the Winter term.

To vote for the people's choice award visit
