

Safety in the College of Forestry

What to Know

- Safety is a culture, and it is everyone's responsibility!
- OSU College of Forestry has its own safety manual, available to everyone
- Accidents, whether or not they result in medical claims or time lost, MUST be reported in a timely manner—<https://hr.oregonstate.edu/benefits/workers-compensation-resources/incident-reporting>
- Always be aware of risks pertaining to the environment you're in, and work accordingly
- COF has a safety committee—see the list of safety representatives to get in touch with us, we would love to hear from you!

Emergency preparedness in Richardson Hall

AEDs and first aid kits are located in each department office

Fire extinguishers are located in all hallways on each floor
