

Forest Ecosystems and Society Graduate Program | Learning Outcomes Coversheet

Student Name: _____ Degree: ___ M.F. ___ M.S. ___ Ph.D.

Prior to the end of the 2nd (MF, MS) or 5th (PhD) term of enrollment, a student is required to, with the help of their committee, produce a document that defines their specific learning outcome(s) in each of the following 7 categories:

- Disciplinary skills and knowledge
- Interdisciplinary Collaborative Problem Solving
- Communication skills (and may include teaching)
- Critical thinking and critical awareness skills
- Research skills
- Research ethics and responsibilities
- Policy analysis and interpretation

This LO Document consists of 3 parts:

- The LO Coversheet: A signature form to indicate approval of the LO Document.
- The LO List: A 1-2 page list of student-specific learning outcomes described in single-sentence statements.
- The LO Plan: A short narrative explaining how each learning outcome in the LO List will be achieved.

Additional steps are required to complete the FES Graduate Program’s learning outcome requirement. Please review the full instructions in the FES Graduate Program Handbook.
